Essential questions

- What does The Minister's Black Veil suggest about secret sin?
- What does The Minister's Black Veil suggest about isolation?
- What does The Minister's Black Veil suggest about symbol and meaning?

Objectives

- Students will cite at least 2 quotations, with locations, to support each written claim about what the text says explicitly and implicitly (scored on the writing-prompt rubric).
- Students will trace one theme across at least 3 sections of the story in the final paper, earning at least 70 of 100 rubric points.
- Students will explain how characters, setting and point of view interact in at least 3 exit tickets, each meeting the claim-evidence-reasoning criteria.
- Students will determine the in-context meaning of taught vocabulary, scoring at least 80% on the vocabulary items of the story quizzes.
- Students will write an argument with a clear claim, reasons and relevant evidence, scoring at least 80% on the unit test's short-answer scoring guides.

Author biography

Nathaniel Hawthorne was born in Salem, Massachusetts, on 4 July 1804; his ancestor John Hathorne was a judge in the Salem witch trials of 1692, a family history Hawthorne felt as a burden. He later changed the spelling of his surname to Hawthorne; why is uncertain, though many link it to his discomfort with his ancestors. After graduating from Bowdoin College in 1825 he spent years writing in near-seclusion in Salem, publishing Twice-Told Tales in 1837. He lived briefly at the utopian Brook Farm community, worked at the Salem Custom House, and achieved fame with The Scarlet Letter (1850) and The House of the Seven Gables (1851). He served as U.S. consul in Liverpool and died on 19 May 1864 in Plymouth, New Hampshire.

Historical and cultural context

Set in a Puritan New England village, the story reflects the Calvinist belief that every person hides secret sin. Hawthorne's footnote mentions a real clergyman, Joseph Moody of York, Maine, who wore a handkerchief over his face after accidentally killing a friend.

Publication and reception, then and now

First published in The Token, a gift annual, for 1836 (issued in late 1835); collected in Twice-Told Tales (1837).

Then: Edgar Allan Poe reviewed Twice-Told Tales in 1842 and praised Hawthorne, though he guessed that the veil hid a specific crime.

Now: Widely taught as a parable of secret sin and as an example of how a symbol can carry many meanings.

Overview (spoiler-free)

The Reverend Mr. Hooper appears one Sunday wearing a black veil over his face. He never explains it, and the village's reaction changes his life.

Main themes

- secret sin: everyone hides something.
- isolation: the veil cuts him off from love.
- symbolism and interpretation: the town's reactions reveal the town.

Why it matters

The story asks why we fear what we don't understand, and what we hide from others.

Spoilers · teacher only

He refuses to remove it even for his fiancée Elizabeth, who leaves him. He becomes an effective but lonely minister, and on his deathbed declares that every face wears a black veil.

First, meaning. I read "I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil" slowly and put it in my own words: On his deathbed, Hooper says that when he looks around he sees a Black Veil on every face. Next, craft. I notice "lo!" an old-fashioned exclamation that sounds like a prophet's revelation. The strongest word is "visage": it is a formal word for face, which adds weight to the sermon. Then, effect. What does Hooper mean when he says he sees a black veil on every face? My answer: The veil stands for the secret sin everyone hides; Hooper's last words accuse his neighbors of the same concealment they feared in him.

7. Which characters appear or are mentioned in "The Minister's Black Veil"? Name two and one thing each says or does. [DOK 1 · coldCallWithSupport · wait 3 s · CAIE-9695.AO1] Look for: Names and actions taken from the story; check against the teacher summary.
8. Where and when does "The Minister's Black Veil" take place? Point to the line that tells you. [DOK 1 · turnAndTalk · wait 3 s · CAIE-9695.AO1] Look for: A place/time detail quoted from the story.
9. Reread: "A person, who watched the interview between the dead and living, scrupled not to affirm, that, at the instant when the clergyman's features were disclosed, the corpse had slightly shuddered, rustling the shroud and…" What does "scrupled" mean here, and what is literally happening in this line? [DOK 1 · turnAndTalk · wait 3 s · CAIE-9695.AO1] Look for: scrupled: hesitated because of a moral doubt.
10. Reread: "Hooper, a gentlemanly person of about thirty, though still a bachelor, was dressed with due clerical neatness, as if a careful wife had starched his band, and brushed the weekly dust from his Sunday's garb." What does "neatness" mean here, and what is literally happening in this line? [DOK 1 · turnAndTalk · wait 3 s · CAIE-9695.AO1] Look for: neatness: tidiness and order.

Inferential / analytical

1. What does "The Minister's Black Veil" suggest about a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer? State the inference and the line that supports it. [DOK 2 · thinkPairShare · wait 5 s · CAIE-9695.AO2] Look for: A key text for teaching symbolism and ambiguity.
2. Find one example of symbolism in this story. What does it reveal that a plain statement would not? [DOK 2 · followUp · wait 5 s · CAIE-9695.AO2] Look for: Look for objects, places or actions that stand for larger ideas.
3. How does the characterization in this story shape what we understand about a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer? [DOK 3 · thinkPairShare · wait 8 s · CAIE-9695.AO2] Look for: Look for what characters say, do and think, and how others react to them.

   Answer guidance: A defensible line of argument: Hooper's veil reveals more about the villagers than about him. Useful evidence: "Why do you tremble at me alone" (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58): His last words begin. On characterization: Hooper is gentle but immovable; Elizabeth is the only one who speaks to him directly. Credit any position that is supported by quotation and reasoning; push one-sided answers to address the strongest counterpoint.
4. In the passage that begins "The color rose into her cheeks, as she intimated the nature of the rumors that were already abroad in the village.", why might Hawthorne have chosen these particular words? Pick two and explain their connotations. [DOK 2 · followUp · wait 5 s · CAIE-9695.AO2] Look for: Diction analysis of two words in the anchor passage.

5. What causes the main turn in “The Minister's Black Veil”, and what effect is it likely to have on what follows? [DOK 2 · followUp · wait 5 s · CAIE-9695.AO2] Look for: Reverend Hooper of Milford appears one Sunday wearing a black veil over his face and never removes it. The congregation is frightened; his fiancée Elizabeth begs him to lift it and leaves him when he refuses. His preaching gains power over sinners, but he lives isolated. On his deathbed he refuses…
6. As the opening story, what does “The Minister's Black Veil” set up that the rest of The Minister's Black Veil will need? [DOK 3 · thinkPairShare · wait 8 s · CAIE-9695.AO2] Look for: A causal or structural link between this and the previous story.

   Answer guidance: A defensible line of argument: Hooper's veil reveals more about the villagers than about him. Useful evidence: “I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58): His accusation. Theme link: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors).    A. perturbation

   B. clambered

   C. bachelors

   D. expressing

Key: D (expressing)

8. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Complete the quotation from The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58: "I look _____ me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil"
   Key: around
9. [mc · recall · DOK 1] What does Hooper say on his deathbed?
   A. He thanks Elizabeth
   B. He confesses a crime
   C. He sees a black veil on every face
   D. He asks to be unveiled

   Key: C (He sees a black veil on every face)
10. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Complete the quotation from paragraph 1: "The sexton stood in the porch of Milford _____-house, pulling lustily at the bell-rope." Word bank: clergyman, countenance, delicate, meeting
    Key: meeting
11. [mc · recall · DOK 1] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 23? "One imitative little imp covered his face with an old black _____, thereby so affrighting his playmates, that the panic seized himself, and he well nigh lost his wits by his own waggery."
    A. imagination
    B. acquaintances
    C. handkerchief
    D. reputation

    Key: C (handkerchief)
12. [short · inference · DOK 2] What does this passage from paragraph 25 reveal about the character or situation? "But there was one person in the village, unappalled by the awe with which the black veil had impressed all beside herself." Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.
    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 25) shows the situation turning on secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The words "unappalled" and "impressed" are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.
13. [short · inference · DOK 2] What does this passage from paragraph 1 reveal about the character or situation? "Children, with bright faces, tript merrily beside their parents, or mimicked a graver gait, in the conscious dignity of their sunday clothes." Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.
    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 1) shows the situation turning on secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The words "conscious" and "mimicked" are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.
14. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze the word choice in "a very efficient clergyman" (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 45). Pick two words and explain what they suggest.
    Sample answer: The irony of his success. The evidence is "a very efficient clergyman" (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 45). This develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The words "clergyman" and "efficient" carry that meaning: they are the charged choices in the line, and changing either would soften the effect.
15. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 10 shapes its tone: "A rumor of some unaccountable phenomenon had preceded Mr. Hooper into the meeting-house, and set all the congregation astir." Pick two words and explain their effect.
    Sample answer: The words "unaccountable" and "congregation" (paragraph 10) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

16. [short · synthesis · DOK 4] Connect this passage from paragraph 12 to the story's treatment of secret sin: "So sensible were the audience of some unwonted attribute in their minister, that they longed for a breath of wind to blow aside the veil, almost believing that a stranger's visage would be discovered, though the form, gesture, and voice…" Use one other moment from the story as well.
    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 12) develops secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words "stranger's" and "discovered" carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in "The next day, the whole village of Milford talked of little else than Parson Hooper's black veil." (paragraph 23), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating secret sin as central.
17. [mc · recall · DOK 1] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 12? "Mr. Hooper had the _____ of a good preacher, but not an energetic one: he strove to win his people heavenward, by mild persuasive influences, rather than to drive them thither, by the thunders of the Word."
    A. perturbation
    B. influence
    C. reputation
    D. delicate

    Key: C (reputation)
18. [short · inference · DOK 2] What can you infer from this line? "I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil" (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58) Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.
    Sample answer: His accusation. The evidence is "I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil" (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58). This develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors).
19. [short · inference · DOK 2] What does this passage most clearly show? "a very efficient clergyman" (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 45) Answer in two or three sentences, quoting one word or phrase.
    Sample answer: The irony of his success. The evidence is "a very efficient clergyman" (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 45). This develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors).
20. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 43 shapes its tone: "But, even amid his grief, Mr. Hooper smiled to think that only a material emblem had separated him from happiness, though the horrors which it shadowed forth, must be drawn darkly between the fondest of lovers." Pick two words and explain their effect.
    Sample answer: The words "happiness" and "separated" (paragraph 43) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.
21. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 30 shapes its tone: "Know, then, this veil is a type and a symbol, and I am bound to wear it ever, both in light and darkness, in solitude and before the gaze of multitudes, and as with strangers, so with my familiar friends." Pick two words and explain their effect.
    Sample answer: The words "multitudes" and "strangers" (paragraph 30) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.
22. [short · synthesis · DOK 4] Synthesis: trace how isolation develops from the opening of "The Minister's Black Veil" to its ending. Use one quotation from each part.

Sample answer: Near the start, “Why do you tremble at me alone” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58), which shows his last words begin. Later, “a very efficient clergyman” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 45), which shows the irony of his success. The veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors).

23. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Fill in the blank with the vocabulary word that fits: “For a few moments she appeared lost in thought, considering, probably, what new methods might be tried, to withdraw her lover from so dark a fantasy, which, if it had no other meaning, was perhaps a _____ of mental disease.” Word bank: neatness, mildness, symptom, scrupled

    Key: symptom

24. [short · synthesis · DOK 4] Connect this passage from paragraph 57 to the story's treatment of secret sin: “Father Hooper's breath heaved; it rattled in his throat; but, with a mighty effort, grasping forward with his hands, he caught hold of life, and held it back till he should speak.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 57) develops secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words “grasping” and “rattled” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “And yet the faint, sad smile, so often there, now seemed to glimmer from its obscurity, and linger on Father Hooper's…” (paragraph 57), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating secret sin as central.

25. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO1] Fill in the blank with the vocabulary word that fits: “But the bride's cold fingers quivered in the tremulous hand of the _____, and her death-like paleness caused a whisper, that the maiden who had been buried a few hours before, was come from her grave to be married.” Word bank: scrupled, mildness, neatness, bridegroom

    Key: bridegroom

26. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] What does this passage most clearly show? “Why do you tremble at me alone” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58) Answer in two or three sentences, quoting one word or phrase.

    Sample answer: His last words begin. The evidence is “Why do you tremble at me alone” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58). This develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors).

27. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO2] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 10 shapes its tone: “He seemed not fully to partake of the prevailing wonder, till Mr. Hooper had ascended the stairs, and showed himself in the pulpit, face to face with his congregation, except for the black veil.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “congregation” and “prevailing” (paragraph 10) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

28. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] Connect this passage from paragraph 12 to the story's treatment of secret sin: “The sermon which he now delivered, was marked by the same characteristics of style and manner, as the general series of his pulpit oratory.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 12) develops secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words “characteristics” and “delivered” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “It was tinged, rather more darkly than usual, with the gentle gloom of Mr. Hooper's temperament.” (paragraph 12), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating secret sin as central.

29. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO1] What effect does the veil have on his ministry?

    A. He becomes cheerful

B. He becomes powerful with sinners but feared

C. He leaves town

D. He loses his job

Key: B (He becomes powerful with sinners but feared)

30. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] What can you infer from this line? “Why do you tremble at me alone” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58) Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

Sample answer: His last words begin. The evidence is “Why do you tremble at me alone” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58). This develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors).

31. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] Connect this passage from paragraph 48 to the story's treatment of secret sin: “At length the death-stricken old man lay quietly in the torpor of mental and bodily exhaustion, with an imperceptible pulse, and breath that grew fainter and fainter, except when a long, deep, and irregular inspiration seemed to prelude…” Use one other moment from the story as well.

Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 48) develops secret sin: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words “imperceptible” and “inspiration” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “Suffer us to be gladdened by your triumphant aspect, as you go to your reward.” (paragraph 53), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating secret sin as central.

32. [mc · analysis · DOK 3 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] Which literary element does this describe in “The Minister's Black Veil”? The veil is never explained; it may mean sin, sorrow, the barrier between people, or the barrier between humanity and God.

A. Structure

B. Alliteration

C. Point of view

D. Symbolism

Key: D (Symbolism)

33. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO2] Close reading: how do the diction and syntax of “I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58) shape its meaning? Consider a second, competing reading.

Sample answer: His accusation. The evidence is “I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58). This develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The words “visage” and “around” carry that meaning: they are the charged choices in the line, and changing either would soften the effect. He asks the crowd "Why do you tremble at me alone," and says "on every visage a Black Veil," pointing out that their fear comes from their own hidden sins.

34. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Dual Credit (Indiana College Core): ICC-WC-1.5] Fill in the blank with the vocabulary word that fits: “Father Hooper at, first replied merely by a feeble motion of his head; then, apprehensive, perhaps, that his meaning might be doubtful, he _____ himself to speak.” Word bank: neatness, scrupled, exerted, mildness

Key: exerted

35. [mc · analysis · DOK 3 · Dual Credit (Indiana College Core): ICC-WC-1.5] Which literary element does this describe in “The Minister's Black Veil”? Hooper is gentle but immovable; Elizabeth is the only one who speaks to him directly.

A. Metaphor

B. Setting

C. Hyperbole

D. Characterization

Key: D (Characterization)

36. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Program outcome: LeL-C2-LIT-1] In the line “A person, who watched the interview between the dead and living, scrupled not to affirm, that, at the instant when the clergyman's features were disclosed, the corpse had slightly shuddered, rustling the shroud and…”, what does “scrupled” most nearly mean?

A. hesitated because of a moral doubt

B. gentleness

C. declaring; judging formally

D. tidiness and order

Key: A (hesitated because of a moral doubt)

37. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Program outcome: LeL-C2-LIT-1] Claim: Hooper's veil reveals more about the villagers than about him. Explain how this evidence supports the claim: “I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58).

Sample answer: He asks the crowd "Why do you tremble at me alone," and says "on every visage a Black Veil," pointing out that their fear comes from their own hidden sins. The evidence is “I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58) — His accusation. This develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors).

38. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Program outcome: LeL-C3-LIT-1] In the line “Hooper, a gentlemanly person of about thirty, though still a bachelor, was dressed with due clerical neatness, as if a careful wife had starched his band, and brushed the weekly dust from his Sunday's garb.”, what does “neatness” most nearly mean?

A. declaring; judging formally

B. hesitated because of a moral doubt

C. gentleness

D. tidiness and order

Key: D (tidiness and order)

39. [mc · inference · DOK 2 · Program outcome: LeL-C3-LIT-1] Which choice best states a central concern of “The Minister's Black Veil”?

A. Accepting one's place in nature's cycle

B. The mind's final escape at the moment of death

C. Racial pride destroying love

D. A symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer

Key: D (A symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer)

40. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Program outcome: LeL-GR-LIT-1] In the line “Hooper's mildness did not forsake him.”, what does “mildness” most nearly mean?

A. gentleness

B. hesitated because of a moral doubt

C. tidiness and order

D. declaring; judging formally

Writing prompts (eleven rigor levels)

Scaffolded support (250 words; Cambridge International: see unit standards): Supported track (work from the passage your teacher selects). In “The Minister's Black Veil,” how does Hawthorne show a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer? Write a paragraph that states your claim, quotes two details from the passage, and explains how each detail supports your idea. Use the symbolism you noticed as one piece of evidence.

HS Freshman (350 words; Cambridge International: see unit standards): In The Minister's Black Veil, how does Hawthorne develop the idea of a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer? State a clear claim, support it with two or three quotations, and explain how the symbolism in the story helps build that idea.

HS Sophomore (450 words; Cambridge International: see unit standards): Analyze how The Minister's Black Veil develops the idea of a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer. Make a precise claim, support it with at least three pieces of textual evidence, and explain how the author's use of symbolism and characterization shapes that idea. Address one possible counterclaim.

HS Junior (550 words; Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO2, CAIE-9695.AO3): Analyze how the structure of The Minister's Black Veil (where it begins, turns and ends) and its symbolism shape the reader's understanding of a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer. Identify one place where the text leaves matters uncertain and explain how that uncertainty adds to its meaning.

HS Senior (600 words; Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3, CAIE-9695.AO5): Two readers disagree about what The Minister's Black Veil suggests about a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer. Lay out two plausible interpretations, weigh the evidence for each (including the story's symbolism and characterization), and argue for the stronger one in a sustained, well-organized essay.

AP (650 words; Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO2, CAIE-9695.AO4): Write a literary argument in which you analyze how Nathaniel Hawthorne uses symbolism in The Minister's Black Veil to complicate the reader's understanding of a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer. Develop a defensible thesis, select evidence purposefully, and explain how specific choices of diction and syntax create meaning.

College Freshman (1000 words; Cambridge International: see unit standards): Situate The Minister's Black Veil within its historical and literary context and argue how the story's treatment of a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer responds to that context. Engage with at least one secondary perspective (a critic, historian or the author's own statements), integrate quotations smoothly, and cite in MLA style.

College Sophomore (1250 words; Cambridge International: see unit standards): Read The Minister's Black Veil alongside the conventions of its genre and period. Argue how the story's handling of a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer follows or bends those conventions, using the symbolism as evidence, and test your reading against one published critic. Document two secondary sources in MLA.

College Junior (1500 words; Cambridge International: see unit standards): Apply a named critical approach (for example formalist, historicist, feminist, psychoanalytic or ecocritical) to The Minister's Black Veil and its treatment of a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer. State your method, show what it reveals in the story's symbolism and characterization, and identify where the text resists it.

College Senior (2000 words; Cambridge International: see unit standards): Develop a research argument that reads The Minister's Black Veil as evidence for a larger claim about a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer in The Minister's Black Veil. Connect close reading of the story to the whole story, engage at least four scholarly sources, and state precisely where your reading departs from theirs (Chicago style).

Graduate / PhD (2500 words; Cambridge International: see unit standards): Develop an original argument that reads The Minister's Black Veil as a hinge in the story's larger treatment of a symbol of hidden sin that isolates its wearer. Position your reading within a named critical conversation (for example formalist, historicist, psychoanalytic, feminist or postcolonial approaches), account for the textual history where relevant, and articulate the stakes of your intervention for scholarship on The Minister's Black Veil.

SAT-style questions

Short-answer scoring guides

Scaffolded support and HS Freshman (2 points): correct answer in a complete sentence with a detail from the text. HS Sophomore to HS Senior (3 points): claim, one accurate quotation, one sentence of explanation. AP to College Sophomore (4 points): precise claim, two embedded quotations, commentary on word choice or structure, link to theme. College Junior to Graduate (5 points): nuanced thesis, close reading of two passages, synthesis across sections, a competing reading answered. Each item lists a sample answer; partial credit is described in the app.

1. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Complete the quotation from paragraph 10: “It was strange to observe, how slowly this venerable man became conscious of something singular in the _____ of his pastor.” Word bank: appearance, handkerchief, countenance, reputation

   Key: appearance

2. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Complete the quotation from paragraph 11: “Such was the effect of this simple piece of crape, that more than one woman of _____ nerves was forced to leave the meeting-house.” Word bank: delicate, clergyman, consciousness, countenance

   Key: delicate

3. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Complete the quotation from paragraph 10: “Few could refrain from twisting their heads towards the door; many stood upright, and turned directly about; while several little boys _____ upon the seats, and came down again with a terrible racket.” Word bank: clambered, consciousness, handkerchief, perturbation

   Key: clambered

4. [mc · recall · DOK 1] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 10? “It shook with his measured breath as he gave out the psalm; it threw its obscurity between him and the holy page, as he read the Scriptures; and while he prayed, the veil lay heavily on his uplifted _____.”

   A. meeting
   B. countenance
   C. bachelors
   D. clambered

   Key: B (countenance)

5. [mc · recall · DOK 1] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 1? “Spruce _____ looked sidelong at the pretty maidens, and fancied that the sabbath sunshine made them prettier than on week-days.”

   A. clergyman
   B. bachelors
   C. consciousness
   D. handkerchief

Key: B (bachelors)

6. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Complete the quotation from paragraph 1: “The first glimpse of the _____'s figure was the signal for the bell to cease its summons.” Word bank: countenance, acquaintances, clergyman, melancholy
   Key: clergyman

7. [mc · recall · DOK 1] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 12? “The subject had reference to secret sin, and those sad mysteries which we hide from our nearest and dearest, and would fain conceal from our own _____, even forgetting that the Omniscient can detect them.”
   A. perturbation
   B. influence
   C. consciousness
   D. expressing

   Key: C (consciousness)

8. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Complete the quotation from paragraph 12: “But there was something, either in the sentiment of the discourse itself, or in the _____ of the auditors, which made it greatly the most powerful effort that they had ever heard from their pastor's lips.” Word bank: countenance, appearance, consciousness, imagination
   Key: imagination

9. [mc · recall · DOK 1] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 10? “But Mr. Hooper appeared not to notice the _____ of his people.”
   A. consciousness
   B. acquaintances
   C. reputation
   D. perturbation

   Key: D (perturbation)

10. [mc · recall · DOK 1] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 15? “The black veil, though it covers only our pastor's face, throws its _____ over his whole person, and makes him ghost-like from head to foot.”
    A. influence
    B. countenance
    C. clambered
    D. clergyman

    Key: A (influence)

11. [fill · recall · DOK 1] Complete the quotation from paragraph 23: “That, and the mystery concealed behind it, supplied a topic for discussion between _____ meeting in the street, and good women gossiping at their open windows.” Word bank: appearance, acquaintances, countenance, melancholy
    Key: acquaintances

12. [short · inference · DOK 2] What does this passage from paragraph 12 reveal about the character or situation? “It was tinged, rather more darkly than usual, with the gentle gloom of Mr. Hooper's temperament.” Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.
    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 12) shows the situation turning on isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The words “temperament” and “darkly” are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

13. [mc · inference · DOK 2] Which of these passages comes earliest in the story?

    A. “Children, with bright faces, tript merrily beside their parents, or mimicked a graver gait, in the conscious dignity of their sunday…”

    B. “When the throng had mostly streamed into the porch, the sexton began to toll the bell, keeping his eye on the Reverend Mr. Hooper's door.”

    C. “The sexton stood in the porch of Milford meeting-house, pulling lustily at the bell-rope.”

    D. “Spruce bachelors looked sidelong at the pretty maidens, and fancied that the sabbath sunshine made them prettier than on week-days.”

    Key: C (“The sexton stood in the porch of Milford meeting-house, pulling lustily at the bell-rope.”)

14. [short · inference · DOK 2] What does this passage from paragraph 10 reveal about the character or situation? “He entered with an almost noiseless step, bent his head mildly to the pews on each side, and bowed as he passed his oldest parishioner, a white-haired great-grandsire, who occupied an arm-chair in the centre of the aisle.” Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 10) shows the situation turning on symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The words “parishioner” and “noiseless” are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

15. [short · inference · DOK 2] What does this passage from paragraph 53 reveal about the character or situation? “Suffer us to be gladdened by your triumphant aspect, as you go to your reward.” Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 53) shows the situation turning on isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The words “triumphant” and “gladdened” are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

16. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 11 shapes its tone: “Yet perhaps the pale-faced congregation was almost as fearful a sight to the minister, as his black veil to them.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “congregation” and “minister” (paragraph 11) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

17. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 1 shapes its tone: “When the throng had mostly streamed into the porch, the sexton began to toll the bell, keeping his eye on the Reverend Mr. Hooper's door.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “streamed” and “keeping” (paragraph 1) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

18. [short · synthesis · DOK 4] Connect this passage from paragraph 38 to the story's treatment of isolation: “She made no reply, but covered her eyes with her hand, and turned to leave the room.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 38) develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words “covered” and “turned” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “Oh! you know not how lonely I am, and how frightened, to be alone behind my black veil.” (paragraph 39), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating isolation as central.

19. [short · inference · DOK 2] What does this passage from paragraph 39 reveal about the character or situation? “Oh! you know not how lonely I am, and how frightened, to be alone behind my black veil.” Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 39) shows the situation turning on symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The words “frightened” and “lonely” are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

20. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 23 shapes its tone: “The next day, the whole village of Milford talked of little else than Parson Hooper's black veil.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “village” and “talked” (paragraph 23) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

21. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 54 shapes its tone: “And thus speaking, the Reverend Mr. Clark bent forward to reveal the mystery of so many years.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “speaking” and “mystery” (paragraph 54) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

22. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 48 shapes its tone: “But in his most convulsive struggles, and in the wildest vagaries of his intellect, when no other thought retained its sober influence, he still showed an awful solicitude lest the black veil should slip aside.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “solicitude” and “convulsive” (paragraph 48) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

23. [short · analysis · DOK 3] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 12 shapes its tone: “Each member of the congregation, the most innocent girl, and the man of hardened breast, felt as if the preacher had crept upon them, behind his awful veil, and discovered their hoarded iniquity of deed or thought.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “congregation” and “discovered” (paragraph 12) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

24. [short · synthesis · DOK 4] Connect this passage from paragraph 26 to the story's treatment of symbol and meaning: “First lay aside your black veil: then tell me why you put it on.'” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 26) develops symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words its wording carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “Know, then, this veil is a type and a symbol, and I am bound to wear it ever, both in light and darkness, in solitude…” (paragraph 30), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating symbol and meaning as central.

25. [short · synthesis · DOK 4] Connect this passage from paragraph 23 to the story's treatment of symbol and meaning: “It was the first item of news that the tavern-keeper told to his guests.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 23) develops symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words “tavern” and “guests” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “But there was one person in the village, unappalled by the awe with which the black veil had impressed all beside…” (paragraph 25), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating symbol and meaning as central.

26. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO2] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 57 shapes its tone: “And yet the faint, sad smile, so often there, now seemed to glimmer from its obscurity, and linger on Father Hooper's lips.” Pick two words and explain their effect.
Sample answer: The words “obscurity” and “glimmer” (paragraph 57) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

27. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] Connect this passage from paragraph 48 to the story's treatment of isolation: “For some time previous, his mind had been confused, wavering doubtfully between the past and the present, and hovering forward, as it were, at intervals, into the indistinctness of the world to come.” Use one other moment from the story as well.
Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 48) develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words “indistinctness” and “doubtfully” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “But in his most convulsive struggles, and in the wildest vagaries of his intellect, when no other thought retained its…” (paragraph 48), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating isolation as central.

28. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO2] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 25 shapes its tone: “As his plighted wife, it should be her privilege to know what the black veil concealed.” Pick two words and explain their effect.
Sample answer: The words “concealed” and “privilege” (paragraph 25) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

29. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] Connect this passage from paragraph 10 to the story's treatment of isolation: “There was a general bustle, a rustling of the women's gowns and shuffling of the men's feet, greatly at variance with that hushed repose which should attend the entrance of the minister.” Use one other moment from the story as well.
Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 10) develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words “shuffling” and “variance” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “He entered with an almost noiseless step, bent his head mildly to the pews on each side, and bowed as he passed his…” (paragraph 10), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating isolation as central.

30. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] Connect this passage from paragraph 3 to the story's treatment of symbol and meaning: “All within hearing immediately turned about, and beheld the semblance of Mr. Hooper, pacing slowly his meditative way towards the meeting-house.” Use one other moment from the story as well.
Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 3) develops symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words “immediately” and “meditative” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “A rumor of some unaccountable phenomenon had preceded Mr. Hooper into the meeting-house, and set all the congregation…" (paragraph 10), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating symbol and meaning as central.

31. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO1] In the line "Finally, the deputies returned abashed to their constituents, pronouncing the matter too weighty to be handled, except by a council of the churches, if, indeed, it might not require a general synod.", what does "pronouncing" most nearly mean?

    A. hesitated because of a moral doubt

    B. declaring; judging formally

    C. tidiness and order

    D. gentleness

    Key: B (declaring; judging formally)

32. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Cambridge International: CAIE-9695.AO3] Connect this passage from paragraph 59 to the story's treatment of symbol and meaning: "Still veiled, they laid him in his coffin, and a veiled corpse they bore him to the grave." Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 59) develops symbol and meaning: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words "coffin" and "corpse" carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in "Children, with bright faces, tript merrily beside their parents, or mimicked a graver gait, in the conscious dignity of…" (paragraph 1), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating symbol and meaning as central.

33. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Program outcome: LeL-C2-LIT-1] Connect this passage from paragraph 10 to the story's treatment of isolation: "Did he seek to hide it from the dread Being whom he was addressing?" Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 10) develops isolation: the veil separates him from everyone, even himself (he avoids mirrors). Its words "addressing" carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in "Yet perhaps the pale-faced congregation was almost as fearful a sight to the minister, as his black veil to them." (paragraph 11), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating isolation as central.

Final paper

The Minister's Black Veil: final paper (formal literary analysis). Choose one prompt.

1. Analyze how Nathaniel Hawthorne develops secret sin across The Minister's Black Veil. Trace the idea through at least three moments (beginning, middle and end) and argue what the ending finally suggests.
2. Choose one recurring symbol, image or motif in The Minister's Black Veil and argue how its meaning changes over the story and why that change matters to isolation.
3. Analyze a central character's choices in The Minister's Black Veil. Argue whether the story judges that character, and how its structure or point of view shapes your answer.
4. Two readers disagree about whether The Minister's Black Veil finally endorses or criticizes its society's view of symbol and meaning. Weigh both readings and argue for one, answering the strongest objection.

Length: Scaffolded support 500-700 words; HS Freshman 700-900 words; HS Sophomore 900-1,100 words; HS Junior 1,000-1,300 words; HS Senior 1,200-1,500 words; AP 1,300-1,600 words; College Freshman 1,500-2,000 words; College Sophomore 2,000-2,500 words; College Junior 2,500-3,000 words; College Senior 3,000-4,000 words; Graduate / PhD 4,000-6,000 words Evidence requirement: at least 4 quotations from at least two parts of the story. Quote the reading text exactly and cite the paragraph (MLA style). HS Senior and above: one scholarly or historical source; College Sophomore and above: two, cited in MLA.

Criterion	Points	Descriptor	Exemplary	Proficient	Developing	Beginning
Thesis	20	A specific, arguable claim that answers the prompt and organizes the paper.	Specific, arguable and precise; it organizes every section.	Clear and arguable, but broad in places.	States a topic or a summary more than an argument.	Missing, or restates the prompt.
Evidence	25	Well-chosen, accurately quoted and cited passages from across the work, meeting the evidence requirement.	Accurate, well-chosen quotations from across the work, all cited; meets the requirement.	Accurate and cited, but clustered in one part of the work.	Too few quotations, or some inaccurate or uncited.	Little or no quoted evidence.
Analysis	30	Explains how language, structure and literary elements create meaning; goes beyond summary.	Explains how specific words, structure and devices create meaning; weighs a competing reading.	Explains the evidence, with some close reading.	Mostly summary; the link to the claim is asserted, not shown.	Summary only.
Organization	15

		Logical progression, clear topic sentences and transitions; introduction and conclusion frame the argument.	Each paragraph advances the argument; transitions show logic.	Logical order with minor jumps.	Order is loose; paragraphs repeat or drift.	No discernible structure.
Style and conventions	10	Formal academic voice, present tense for literature, correct grammar and MLA format.	Formal, precise, present tense; MLA format; virtually error-free.	Formal with a few errors that do not obscure meaning.	Informal or error-prone in ways that distract.	Errors obscure meaning.

Exemplar paragraph: Hooper's veil reveals more about the villagers than about him. The text makes this visible when it says “I look around me, and, lo! on every visage a Black Veil” (The Minister's Black Veil, paragraph 58). He asks the crowd "Why do you tremble at me alone," and says "on every visage a Black Veil," pointing out that their fear comes from their own hidden sins. A full paper would carry this reading through the beginning, middle and end, and answer the strongest competing reading.
