Essential questions

- What does After Twenty Years suggest about loyalty and duty?
- What does After Twenty Years suggest about change over time?
- What does After Twenty Years suggest about friendship?

Objectives

- Students will cite at least 2 quotations, with locations, to support each written claim about what the text says explicitly and implicitly (scored on the writing-prompt rubric).
- Students will trace one theme across at least 3 sections of the story in the final paper, earning at least 70 of 100 rubric points.
- Students will explain how characters, setting and point of view interact in at least 3 exit tickets, each meeting the claim-evidence-reasoning criteria.
- Students will determine the in-context meaning of taught vocabulary, scoring at least 80% on the vocabulary items of the story quizzes.
- Students will write an argument with a clear claim, reasons and relevant evidence, scoring at least 80% on the unit test's short-answer scoring guides.

Lesson 1: Introduction to After Twenty Years

Objective: Students will explain, in a 3-sentence exit ticket, how one fact about O. Henry's life or times connects to loyalty and duty in “After Twenty Years”, and will set up a reading journal with a prediction and a question for each of 3 themes (loyalty and duty, change over time, friendship).

Standards: Common Core RL.9-10.1, RL.9-10.2

Author biography

O. Henry was the pen name of William Sydney Porter, born on 11 September 1862 in Greensboro, North Carolina. He trained as a pharmacist, moved to Texas, and worked as a draftsman, bank teller and humorous journalist. Convicted of embezzling from the Austin bank where he had worked (he maintained his innocence), he served about three years in the Ohio Penitentiary (1898–1901), where he began publishing stories as O. Henry. In New York he wrote a story a week for the New York World and produced hundreds of tales of ordinary city people, famous for their warmth, wordplay and twist endings. He died in New York on 5 June 1910.

Historical and cultural context

New York around 1900 had a new professional police force walking regular beats, and the West was still a place where young men went to make fortunes, honestly or not.

Publication and reception, then and now

First published in the New York Sunday World in 1906; collected in The Four Million (1906).

Then: Popular as one of O. Henry's neat "twist" stories.

Now: A standard middle-school text for foreshadowing, characterization and the surprise ending.

Overview (spoiler-free)

On a dark, rainy night a policeman walking his beat meets a man waiting in a doorway. The man explains he is keeping an appointment made twenty years ago with his best friend, Jimmy Wells.

Main themes

- loyalty and duty.
- change over time.

Why it matters

It raises a real ethical dilemma: what do we owe a friend who has done wrong?

Spoilers · teacher only

The policeman was Jimmy; recognizing the man as a wanted criminal, "Silky" Bob, he could not arrest his friend himself and sent a plainclothes officer with a note.

Next, craft. I notice the joke about a physical detail that solves the mystery. The strongest word is "Roman": it names a nose shape that marks identity, which Bob notices only under the bright lights. Then, effect. What does Bob's remark about noses reveal? My answer: Bob's line exposes that the tall man is not Jimmy Wells but a plainclothes officer; O. Henry's twist hides the sad truth that Jimmy, the patrolman Bob met earlier, could not arrest his old friend himself and sent someone else.*

A man waits in a New York doorway to meet his old friend Jimmy Wells, twenty years to the day after they parted. He tells a patrolling policeman about the plan. A man claiming to be Jimmy arrives, but he is a plainclothes officer who arrests the waiting man, 'Silky' Bob, wanted in Chicago. A note reveals that the patrolman was Jimmy, who recognized Bob as the wanted man and could not arrest him himself.

Background: Published in 1906 and collected in The Four Million, which names the ordinary New Yorkers O. Henry wrote about.

Significance: A compact surprise ending that rewards rereading for planted clues.

First, meaning. I read "Twenty years is a long time, but not long enough to change a man's nose from a Roman to a pug" slowly and put it in my own words: Under the drug-store lights, Bob himself snaps that twenty years is not long enough to change a man's nose from a Roman to a pug, so the tall man beside him cannot be Jimmy. Next, craft. I notice the joke about noses, which makes the reveal light and clever even as the trap closes. The strongest word is "pug": it is a short, funny word, and it is the evidence. Then, effect. How does this line reveal the truth about the man who arrives? My answer: Bob's own line reveals that the tall man who arrived is not Jimmy Wells, because the noses don't match; the stranger is a plainclothes officer who arrests Bob, and O. Henry hides a sad betrayal inside a joke.

Teacher analysis (spoilers)

Literary elements

- Foreshadowing: The cop's careful questions and Bob's diamond scarfpin hint at the twist.
- Characterization: Bob is boastful and flashy; Jimmy is quiet and dutiful.
- Irony: Bob praises Jimmy as the most loyal friend in the world, and that loyalty to duty is what catches him.

Themes and how they develop

- loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law.

Symbols and motifs

- the appointment: loyalty that survives twenty years.

Key quotations (checked against the reading text)

- "Twenty years is a long time, but not long enough to change a man's nose from a Roman to a pug" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 30) The reveal.
- "It sometimes changes a good man into a bad one" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 31) The theme of change.
- "Bob: I was at the appointed place on time" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33) Jimmy's note.

Model claim-evidence-reasoning

Claim: Jimmy proves his loyalty to both his friend and his duty.
Evidence: "Bob: I was at the appointed place on time" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33)
Reasoning: His note says "I was at the appointed place on time," so he kept his promise, but he sent another officer because he was bound by duty and could not bear to arrest Bob himself.

1. What does "After Twenty Years" suggest about friendship tested by duty? State the inference and the line that supports it. [DOK 2 · thinkPairShare · wait 5 s · RL.9-10.2, SL.9-10.1, RL.11-12.2] Look for: A compact surprise ending that rewards rereading for planted clues.
2. Find one example of irony in this story. What does it reveal that a plain statement would not? [DOK 2 · followUp · wait 5 s · RL.9-10.1, SL.9-10.1, RL.11-12.6] Look for: Look for gaps between what characters expect or say and what is true.
3. How does the foreshadowing in this story shape what we understand about friendship tested by duty? [DOK 3 · thinkPairShare · wait 8 s · RL.9-10.5, SL.9-10.1, RL.11-12.5] Look for: Look for hints, warnings or images that point to later events.

   Answer guidance: A defensible line of argument: Jimmy proves his loyalty to both his friend and his duty.

Useful evidence: “Twenty years is a long time, but not long enough to change a man’s nose from a Roman to a pug” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 30): The reveal. On foreshadowing: The cop's careful questions and Bob's diamond scarfpin hint at the twist. Credit any position that is supported by quotation and reasoning; push one-sided answers to address the strongest counterpoint.

4. In the passage that begins “THE policeman on the beat moved up the avenue impressively.”, why might Henry have chosen these particular words? Pick two and explain their connotations. [DOK 2 · followUp · wait 5 s · RL.9-10.4, SL.9-10.1, RL.11-12.4] Look for: Diction analysis of two words in the anchor passage.
5. What causes the main turn in “After Twenty Years”, and what effect is it likely to have on what follows? [DOK 2 · followUp · wait 5 s · RL.9-10.3, SL.9-10.1, RL.11-12.3] Look for: A man waits in a New York doorway to meet his old friend Jimmy Wells, twenty years to the day after they parted. He tells a patrolling policeman about the plan. A man claiming to be Jimmy arrives, but he is a plainclothes officer who arrests the waiting man, 'Silky' Bob, wanted in Chicago. A note…
6. As the opening story, what does “After Twenty Years” set up that the rest of After Twenty Years will need? [DOK 3 · thinkPairShare · wait 8 s · RL.9-10.5, SL.9-10.1, RL.11-12.5] Look for: A causal or structural link between this and the previous story.

   Answer guidance: A defensible line of argument: Jimmy proves his loyalty to both his friend and his duty. Useful evidence: “It sometimes changes a good man into a bad one” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 31): The theme of change. Theme link: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Credit any position that is supported by quotation and reasoning; push one-sided answers to address the strongest counterpoint.
7. What can we infer about a character's motives from what they say and do here, as opposed to what they claim? [DOK 3 · followUp · wait 8 s · RL.9-10.3, SL.9-10.1, RL.11-12.3] Look for: An inference about motive supported by a quoted line.

   Answer guidance: A defensible line of argument: Jimmy proves his loyalty to both his friend and his duty. Useful evidence: “Bob: I was at the appointed place on time” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33): Jimmy's note. On characterization: Bob is boastful and flashy; Jimmy is quiet and dutiful. Credit any position that is supported by quotation and reasoning; push one-sided answers to address the strongest counterpoint.
8. The bell-ringer asked: “Would you turn in a friend who had done something seriously wrong? Why or why not?” Now that we have read closely, how would you revise your first answer, and which line changed your mind? [DOK 2 · thinkPairShare · wait 5 s · RL.9-10.2, SL.9-10.1, RL.11-12.2] Look for: A revised answer anchored in the text.

restaurant, finest, sharpest

Key: finest

9. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: RL.9-10.1] Complete the quotation from After Twenty Years, paragraph 31: "It _____ changes a good man into a bad one"

   Key: sometimes

10. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Fill in the blank with the vocabulary word that fits: "THE policeman on the beat moved up the avenue _____." Word bank: egotism, impressively, vicinity, corresponded

    Key: impressively

11. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.3] What can you infer from this line? "It sometimes changes a good man into a bad one" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 31) Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

    Sample answer: The theme of change. The evidence is "It sometimes changes a good man into a bad one" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 31). This develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law.

12. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.3] What does this passage from paragraph 1 reveal about the character or situation? "The time was barely 10 o'clock at night, but chilly gusts of wind with a taste of rain in them had well nigh depeopled the streets." Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 1) shows the situation turning on loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words "depeopled" and "streets" are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

13. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.3] What does this passage from paragraph 14 reveal about the character or situation? "The policeman twirled his club and took a step or two." Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 14) shows the situation turning on loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words "policeman" and "twirled" are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

14. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 26 shapes its tone: "I have a position in one of the city departments." Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words "departments" and "position" (paragraph 26) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

15. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 4 shapes its tone: "Well, I'll explain if you'd like to make certain it's all straight." Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words "straight" and "explain" (paragraph 4) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

16. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.9-10.2] Synthesis: trace how loyalty and duty develops from the opening of "After Twenty Years" to its ending. Use one quotation from each part.

    Sample answer: Near the start, "Twenty years is a long time, but not long enough to change a man's nose from a Roman to a pug" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 30) — The reveal. Later, "Bob: I was at the appointed place on time" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33) — Jimmy's note. Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law.

17. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Complete the quotation from paragraph 1: “The _____ was habitual and not for show, for spectators were few.” Word bank: restaurant, finest, impressiveness, conditions

    Key: impressiveness

18. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: RL.9-10.1] What clue shows the waiting man's wealth?

    A. A diamond scarfpin and watch

    B. A fur coat

    C. A new car

    D. A bag of gold

    Key: A (A diamond scarfpin and watch)

19. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 22 shapes its tone: “How has the West treated you, old man?” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “treated” (paragraph 22) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

20. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.2] Claim: Jimmy proves his loyalty to both his friend and his duty. Explain how this evidence supports the claim: “Bob: I was at the appointed place on time” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33).

    Sample answer: His note says "I was at the appointed place on time," so he kept his promise, but he sent another officer because he was bound by duty and could not bear to arrest Bob himself. The evidence is “Bob: I was at the appointed place on time” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33) — Jimmy's note. This develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law.

21. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.9-10.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 29 to the story's treatment of loyalty and duty: “The man from the West stopped suddenly and released his arm.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 29) develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words “released” and “suddenly” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “Chicago thinks you may have dropped over our way and wires us she wants to have a chat with you.” (paragraph 31), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating loyalty and duty as central.

22. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 4? “Sounds a _____ funny to you, doesn’t it?”

    A. impressiveness

    B. restaurant

    C. handsome

    D. little

    Key: D (little)

23. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: RL.9-10.1] Why did Jimmy send someone else to make the arrest?

    A. He was ordered to

    B. He was afraid

    C. He could not bring himself to arrest his old friend

    D. He was off duty

Key: C (He could not bring himself to arrest his old friend)

24. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Fill in the blank with the vocabulary word that fits: "'Is that you, Bob?' he asked, _____." Word bank: vicinity, egotism, doubtfully, corresponded
    Key: doubtfully

25. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.3] What can you infer from this line? "Twenty years is a long time, but not long enough to change a man's nose from a Roman to a pug" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 30) Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.
    Sample answer: The reveal. The evidence is "Twenty years is a long time, but not long enough to change a man's nose from a Roman to a pug" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 30).

26. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze the word choice in "Bob: I was at the appointed place on time" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33). Pick two words and explain what they suggest.
    Sample answer: Jimmy's note. The evidence is "Bob: I was at the appointed place on time" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33). This develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words "appointed" and "place" carry that meaning: they are the charged choices in the line, and changing either would soften the effect.

27. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 7 shapes its tone: "He and I were raised here in New York, just like two brothers, together." Pick two words and explain their effect.
    Sample answer: The words "brothers" and "together" (paragraph 7) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

28. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.9-10.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 8 to the story's treatment of loyalty and duty: "Haven't you heard from your friend since you left?" Use one other moment from the story as well.
    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 8) develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words "friend" carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in "I came a thousand miles to stand in this door tonight, and it's worth it if my old partner turns up." (paragraph 9), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating loyalty and duty as central.

29. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.11-12.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 11 to the story's treatment of loyalty and duty: "It was exactly ten o'clock when we parted here at the restaurant door." Use one other moment from the story as well.
    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 11) develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words "restaurant" and "exactly" carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in "A man gets in a groove in New York." (paragraph 13), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating loyalty and duty as central.

30. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.11-12.2] What does this passage most clearly show? "It sometimes changes a good man into a bad one" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 31) Answer in two or three sentences, quoting one word or phrase.
    Sample answer: The theme of change. The evidence is "It sometimes changes a good man into a bad one" (After Twenty Years, paragraph 31). This develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law.

31. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.11-12.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 32 to the story's treatment of loyalty and duty: "His hand was steady when he began to read, but it trembled a little by the time he had finished." Use one other moment from the story as well.
    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 32) develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words “trembled” and “finished” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “Somehow I couldn’t do it myself, so I went around and got a plain clothes man to do the job.” (paragraph 33), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating loyalty and duty as central.

32. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.11-12.4] In the line “The few foot passengers astir in that quarter hurried dismally and silently along with coat collars turned high and pocketed hands.”, what does “dismally” most nearly mean?

    Key: C (Foreshadowing)

34. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Dual Credit (Indiana College Core): ICC-WC-1.5] In the line “The man from the West, his egotism enlarged by success, was beginning to outline the history of his career.”, what does “egotism” most nearly mean?

    A. too much concern with oneself

    B. in a gloomy, depressing way

    C. a surrounding or nearby region

    D. exchanged letters

    Key: A (too much concern with oneself)

35. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Dual Credit (Indiana College Core): ICC-WC-1.5] Close reading: how do the diction and syntax of “It sometimes changes a good man into a bad one” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 31) shape its meaning? Consider a second, competing reading.

    Sample answer: The theme of change. The evidence is “It sometimes changes a good man into a bad one” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 31). This develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words “sometimes” and “changes” carry that meaning: they are the charged choices in the line, and changing either would soften the effect. His note says "I was at the appointed place on time," so he kept his promise, but he sent another officer because he was bound by duty and could not bear to arrest Bob himself.

[short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Program outcome: LeL-C2-LIT-1] Close reading: how do the diction and syntax of “Twenty years is a long time, but not long enough to change a man’s nose from a Roman to a pug” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 30) shape its meaning? Consider a second, competing reading.

    Sample answer: The reveal. The evidence is “Twenty years is a long time, but not long enough to change a man’s nose from a Roman to a pug” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 30). This develops loyalty and duty: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words “enough” and “change” carry that meaning: they are the charged choices in the line, and changing either would soften the effect. His note says "I was at the appointed place on time," so he kept his promise, but he sent another officer because he was bound by duty and could not bear to arrest Bob himself.

37. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Program outcome: LeL-C3-LIT-1] In the line “The vicinity was one that kept early hours.”, what does “vicinity” most nearly mean?

    C. in a gloomy, depressing way

    D. a surrounding or nearby region

    Key: D (a surrounding or nearby region)

Writing prompts (eleven rigor levels)

Scaffolded support (250 words; Common Core: RL.9-10.1, W.9-10.1): Supported track (work from the passage your teacher selects). In “After Twenty Years,” how does Henry show friendship tested by duty? Write a paragraph that states your claim, quotes two details from the passage, and explains how each detail supports your idea. Use the irony you noticed as one piece of evidence.

HS Freshman (350 words; Common Core: RL.9-10.1, W.9-10.1): In After Twenty Years, how does Henry develop the idea of friendship tested by duty? State a clear claim, support it with two or three quotations, and explain how the irony in the story helps build that idea.

HS Sophomore (450 words; Common Core: RL.9-10.1, W.9-10.1): Analyze how After Twenty Years develops the idea of friendship tested by duty. Make a precise claim, support it with at least three pieces of textual evidence, and explain how the author's use of irony and foreshadowing shapes that idea. Address one possible counterclaim.

HS Junior (550 words; Common Core: RL.11-12.5, RL.11-12.1, W.11-12.1, RL.11-12.9): Analyze how the structure of After Twenty Years (where it begins, turns and ends) and its irony shape the reader's understanding of friendship tested by duty. Identify one place where the text leaves matters uncertain and explain how that uncertainty adds to its meaning. Distinguish what is directly stated from what is really meant.

HS Senior (600 words; Common Core: RL.11-12.6, W.11-12.1, RL.11-12.9): Two readers disagree about what After Twenty Years suggests about friendship tested by duty. Lay out two plausible interpretations, weigh the evidence for each (including the story's irony and foreshadowing), and argue for the stronger one in a sustained, well-organized essay. Distinguish what is directly stated from what is really meant.

AP (650 words; Common Core: RL.11-12.6, W.11-12.1): Write a literary argument in which you analyze how O. Henry uses irony in After Twenty Years to complicate the reader's understanding of friendship tested by duty. Develop a defensible thesis, select evidence purposefully, and explain how specific choices of diction and syntax create meaning.

College Freshman (1000 words; Common Core: see unit standards): Situate After Twenty Years within its historical and literary context and argue how the story's treatment of friendship tested by duty responds to that context. Engage with at least one secondary perspective (a critic, historian or the author's own statements), integrate quotations smoothly, and cite in MLA style.

College Sophomore (1250 words; Common Core: see unit standards): Read After Twenty Years alongside the conventions of its genre and period. Argue how the story's handling of friendship tested by duty follows or bends those conventions, using the irony as evidence, and test your reading against one published critic. Document two secondary sources in MLA.

College Junior (1500 words; Common Core: see unit standards): Apply a named critical approach (for example formalist, historicist, feminist, psychoanalytic or ecocritical) to After Twenty Years and its treatment of friendship tested by duty. State your method, show what it reveals in the story's irony and foreshadowing, and identify where the text resists it.

College Senior (2000 words; Common Core: see unit standards): Develop a research argument that reads After Twenty Years as evidence for a larger claim about friendship tested by duty in After Twenty Years. Connect close reading of the story to the whole story, engage at least four scholarly sources, and state precisely where your reading departs from theirs (Chicago style).

Graduate / PhD (2500 words; Common Core: see unit standards): Develop an original argument that reads After Twenty Years as a hinge in the story's larger treatment of friendship tested by duty. Position your reading within a named critical conversation (for example formalist, historicist, psychoanalytic, feminist or postcolonial approaches), account for the textual history where relevant, and articulate the stakes of your intervention for scholarship on After Twenty Years.

SAT-style questions

1. The vicinity was one that kept early hours.

Short-answer scoring guides

Scaffolded support and HS Freshman (2 points): correct answer in a complete sentence with a detail from the text. HS Sophomore to HS Senior (3 points): claim, one accurate quotation, one sentence of explanation. AP to College Sophomore (4 points): precise claim, two embedded quotations, commentary on word choice or structure, link to theme. College Junior to Graduate (5 points): nuanced thesis, close reading of two passages, synthesis across sections, a competing reading answered. Each item lists a sample answer; partial credit is described in the app.

Unit test: item bank (all eleven rigor versions)

1. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Complete the quotation from paragraph 4: “About that long ago there used to be a _____ where this store stands—Big Joe’ Brady’s restaurant.” Word bank: between, little, restaurant, sharpest

   Key: restaurant
2. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Complete the quotation from paragraph 3: “In the doorway of a darkened hardware store a man leaned, with an _____ cigar in his mouth.” Word bank: unlighted, handsome, conditions, impressiveness

   Key: unlighted
3. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 7? “The next _____ I was to start for the West to make my fortune.”

   C. morning

   Key: C (morning)
4. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Complete the quotation from paragraph 7: “Well, we agreed that night that we would meet here again exactly twenty years from that date and time, no matter what our _____ might be or from what distance we might have to come.” Word bank: between, stanchest, unlighted, conditions

   Key: conditions
5. [fill · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Complete the quotation from paragraph 9: “But I know Jimmy will meet me here if he’s alive, for he always was the truest, _____ old chap in the world.” Word bank: little, unlighted, eyebrow, stanchest

   Key: stanchest
6. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 2? “Now and then you might see the lights of a cigar store or of an all-night lunch counter; but the _____ of the doors belonged to business places that had long since been closed.”

C. majority

Key: C (majority)

7. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 6? "The light showed a pale, square-jawed face with keen eyes, and a little white scar near his right _____."

   Key: C (eyebrow)

8. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.9-10.4] Which word completes this sentence from paragraph 10? "The waiting man pulled out a _____ watch, the lids of it set with small diamonds."

   C. finest

   Key: B (handsome)

9. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.3] What does this passage from paragraph 31 reveal about the character or situation? "Chicago thinks you may have dropped over our way and wires us she wants to have a chat with you." Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

   Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 31) shows the situation turning on change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words "dropped" and "thinks" are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

10. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.3] What does this passage from paragraph 23 reveal about the character or situation? "I never thought you were so tall by two or three inches." Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 23) shows the situation turning on friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words "thought" and "inches" are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

11. [mc · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.1] Which of these passages comes earliest in the story?

    A. "The time was barely 10 o'clock at night, but chilly gusts of wind with a taste of rain in them had well nigh depeopled the streets."

    B. "The impressiveness was habitual and not for show, for spectators were few."

    C. "Now and then you might see the lights of a cigar store or of an all-night lunch counter; but the majority of the doors belonged to business…"

    D. "When about midway of a certain block the policeman suddenly slowed his walk."

    Key: B ("The impressiveness was habitual and not for show, for spectators were few.")

12. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.3] What does this passage from paragraph 9 reveal about the character or situation? "I came a thousand miles to stand in this door tonight, and it's worth it if my old partner turns up." Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 9) shows the situation turning on change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words "thousand" and "tonight" are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

13. [short · inference · DOK 2 · Common Core: RL.9-10.3] What does this passage from paragraph 6 reveal about the character or situation? "The man in the doorway struck a match and lit his cigar." Answer in two or three sentences with one detail.

    Sample answer: The passage (paragraph 6) shows the situation turning on friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The words "doorway" and "struck" are the proof, because they show how the moment looks to the people in it. They suggest more than the narrator states outright.

14. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 7 shapes its tone: "You couldn't have dragged Jimmy out of New York; he thought it was the only place on earth." Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words "dragged" and "thought" (paragraph 7) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

15. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 3 shapes its tone: "As the policeman walked up to him the man spoke up quickly." Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words "policeman" and "quickly" (paragraph 3) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

16. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 33 shapes its tone: "Somehow I couldn't do it myself, so I went around and got a plain clothes man to do the job." Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words "clothes" and "around" (paragraph 33) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

17. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.9-10.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 13 to the story's treatment of friendship: "He was a kind of plodder, though, good fellow as he was." Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 13) develops friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words "plodder" and "fellow" carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in "The policeman twirled his club and took a step or two." (paragraph 14), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating friendship as central.

18. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 31 shapes its tone: "You may read it here at the window." Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words "window" (paragraph 31) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

19. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 9 shapes its tone: "You see, the West is a pretty big proposition, and I kept hustling around over it pretty lively." Pick two words and explain their effect.

Sample answer: The words “proposition” and “hustling” (paragraph 9) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

20. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.9-10.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 18 to the story's treatment of friendship: “And in the door of the hardware store the man who had come a thousand miles to fill an appointment, uncertain almost to absurdity, with the friend of his youth, smoked his cigar and waited.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 18) develops friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words “appointment” and “absurdity” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “How has the West treated you, old man?” (paragraph 22), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating friendship as central.

21. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.9-10.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 16 shapes its tone: “If Jimmy is alive on earth he’ll be here by that time.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words its wording (paragraph 16) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

22. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.9-10.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 22 to the story's treatment of change over time: “I was certain I’d find you here if you were still in existence.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 22) develops change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words “existence” and “certain” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “I never thought you were so tall by two or three inches.” (paragraph 23), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating change over time as central.

23. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.9-10.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 6 to the story's treatment of change over time: “His scarfpin was a large diamond, oddly set.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 6) develops change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words “scarfpin” and “diamond” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “The man in the doorway struck a match and lit his cigar.” (paragraph 6), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating change over time as central.

24. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.11-12.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 28 shapes its tone: “At the corner stood a drug store, brilliant with electric lights.” Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words “brilliant” and “electric” (paragraph 28) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

25. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.11-12.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 7 to the story's treatment of change over time: “We figured that in twenty years each of us ought to have our destiny worked out and our fortunes made, whatever they were going to be.” Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 7) develops change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words “fortunes” and “whatever” carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in “You couldn’t have dragged Jimmy out of New York; he thought it was the only place on earth." (paragraph 7), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating change over time as central.

26. [short · analysis · DOK 3 · Common Core: RL.11-12.4] Analyze how the word choice in this passage from paragraph 13 shapes its tone: "A man gets in a groove in New York." Pick two words and explain their effect.

    Sample answer: The words "groove" (paragraph 13) make the tone heavy and deliberate rather than neutral. That weight points the reader to change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. The author chooses them so the moment feels significant instead of passing.

27. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.11-12.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 27 to the story's treatment of change over time: "The two men started up the street, arm in arm." Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 27) develops change over time: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words "started" and "street" carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in "At the corner stood a drug store, brilliant with electric lights." (paragraph 28), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating change over time as central.

28. [mc · recall · DOK 1 · Common Core: L.11-12.4] In the line "'Well, yes, for a time we corresponded,' said the other.", what does "corresponded" most nearly mean?

    A. too much concern with oneself

    B. a surrounding or nearby region

    C. exchanged letters

    D. in a gloomy, depressing way

    Key: C (exchanged letters)

29. [short · synthesis · DOK 4 · Common Core: RL.11-12.2] Connect this passage from paragraph 3 to the story's treatment of friendship: "When about midway of a certain block the policeman suddenly slowed his walk." Use one other moment from the story as well.

    Sample answer: This passage (paragraph 3) develops friendship: Jimmy keeps both the appointment and the law. Its words "policeman" and "suddenly" carry that idea into this moment. The same concern returns in "Well, I'll explain if you'd like to make certain it's all straight." (paragraph 4), so the two passages read as a pattern, not a single moment. Together they show the story treating friendship as central.

Final paper

After Twenty Years: final paper (formal literary analysis). Choose one prompt.

1. Analyze how O. Henry develops loyalty and duty across After Twenty Years. Trace the idea through at least three moments (beginning, middle and end) and argue what the ending finally suggests.
2. Choose one recurring symbol, image or motif in After Twenty Years and argue how its meaning changes over the story and why that change matters to change over time.
3. Analyze a central character's choices in After Twenty Years. Argue whether the story judges that character, and how its structure or point of view shapes your answer.
4. Two readers disagree about whether After Twenty Years finally endorses or criticizes its society's view of friendship. Weigh both readings and argue for one, answering the strongest objection.

Length: Scaffolded support 500-700 words; HS Freshman 700-900 words; HS Sophomore 900-1,100 words; HS Junior 1,000-1,300 words; HS Senior 1,200-1,500 words; AP 1,300-1,600 words; College Freshman 1,500-2,000 words; College Sophomore 2,000-2,500 words; College Junior 2,500-3,000 words; College Senior 3,000-4,000 words; Graduate / PhD 4,000-6,000 words

Evidence requirement: at least 4 quotations from at least two parts of the story. Quote the reading text exactly and cite the paragraph (MLA style). HS Senior and above: one scholarly or historical source; College Sophomore and above: two, cited in MLA.

| | | Logical progression, clear topic sentences and transitions; introduction and conclusion frame the argument. | Each paragraph advances the argument; transitions show logic. | Logical order with minor jumps. | Order is loose; paragraphs repeat or drift. | No discernible structure. |
| Style and conventions | 10 | Formal academic voice, present tense for literature, correct grammar and MLA format. | Formal, precise, present tense; MLA format; virtually error-free. | Formal with a few errors that do not obscure meaning. | Informal or error-prone in ways that distract. | Errors obscure meaning. |

Exemplar paragraph: Jimmy proves his loyalty to both his friend and his duty. The text makes this visible when it says “Bob: I was at the appointed place on time” (After Twenty Years, paragraph 33). His note says "I was at the appointed place on time," so he kept his promise, but he sent another officer because he was bound by duty and could not bear to arrest Bob himself. A full paper would carry this reading through the beginning, middle and end, and answer the strongest competing reading.
